KEY TO SYMBOLS

TRAIL DIFFICULTY RATING SYSTEM

Beginner - These trails generally have a wider trail width, a firm and stable surface and a steady gradient.

Intermediate - These trails have a mostly stable trail surface with some variability in the terrain. The trail may feature both avoidable and unavoidable obstacles including small jumps and drops plus a steeper gradient.

Advanced - These trails are widely variable and are suitable for advanced riders only. The trail will feature larger jumps and drops, loose rocks, very steep gradient and large unavoidable obstacles.

TRAIL TYPES

Flow - These trails are machine built and offer wider trail width, smooth surface, flowing terrain with manicured berms and jumps.

Technical - These trails generally have a rougher surface, narrower trail width and irregular surface. These trails may feature tighter corners, rocks, roots and other trail features.

GRAVITY TRAILS

- 14a 14b Easy Rider – 2.9km
Easy Rider is the perfect starting point for those new to mountain biking and looking for an introduction into gravity riding.
- 13 Sidewinder – 3.2km
A gravity flow trail, Sidewinder features deep flowing berms, rolling terrain and some small features to test your skills on.
- 11 Centre Link – 2km
Centre Link features easy traverses, small rollers and a steady gradient.
- 12 Woodys – 900m
Winding its way through dense bush, Woodys features hand built techy terrain with a few machine built berms thrown in.
- 16 Grasshopper – 2.1km
A true flow trail, Grasshopper provides numerous jump options and huge flowing berms. This is a great trail for riders looking for an introduction into small jumps.
- 8 Kosciuszko Flow – 4.5km
The Kosciuszko Flow offers supreme machine built single-track with never ending rollers and flowing berms. Although a steady gradient, it still provides the adrenalin rush of gravity riding due to the fast trail speed.
- 7 Ricochet – 3.2km
Ricochet, flaunts flowing berms, deep undulating rollers and the odd jump or two for the more advanced. Keep an eye out for some advanced rock rolls lines off the side.
- 15 Paparazzi – 1.1km
Taking its name from the many photo opportunities, Paparazzi uses the terrain of the sub-alpine ecosystem and features rock clusters, flowing turns and natural features throughout.
- 6 Flow Link – 400m
The Flow Link is a technical section that features multiple man made rock gardens, river crossings and some deep berms.
- 9a 9b Thredbo All-Mountain – 9km
The All-Mountain starts in the high alpine ecosystem and offers a wide variety of terrain including technical rock gardens, short climbs and flowing machine built single-track.
- 10 Cannonball Downhill – 3.3km
Thredbo's signature trail, Cannonball tests riders with off-camber roots, rock drops, jumps, wall-ride and other technical features.

Full-face helmet and protective gear recommended on all gravity trails.

CROSS COUNTRY TRAILS

- 3 Pipeline Path – 2km
With a steady gradient and wide trail surface, this is a perfect introduction to mountain biking.
- 4 Thredbo Valley Track – Rides ranging from 5km return to 35km one way
This shared use trail takes riders down the picturesque Thredbo Valley along the banks of the Thredbo River. The 3 bridges (5km return) or Ranger Station (12km return) is perfect for those looking for a shorter ride with some climbing on the ride back. Riders can continue onto Thredbo Diggings (14.5km one way), Lake Crackenback (20km one way), or the whole way to Gaden Trout Hatchery near Jindabyne (35km one way). The trail between Lake Crackenback and Gaden Trout Hatchery is for advanced riders only.
- 2 Friday Flat Loop – 2.4km
An entry level XC loop featuring undulating terrain, steady climbs and small rock features.
- 1 Village XC – 1.5km
This XC loop climbs through thick forests, past flowing rivers and secret rock pools perfect for a cool dip.
- 17 Golf Course Loop – 2.4km
The Golf Course Loop is a multi-use singletrack that features some small steps, short technical climbs and some rock gardens to negotiate. This is a great loop for those looking for more of a challenge.

SKILLS PARKS
